Closest Stations & Walking Routes:

Southwark Station (Jubilee Line, ~9 min walk)

Blackfriars Station

Waterloo Station (National Rail: South Western Railway, Bakerloo line, Jubilee line, Northern line (Bank branch), Waterloo & City line, ~11 min walk)

Exit towards Waterloo Road and walk towards Alaska Street. Turn right onto Stamford Street, then turn left onto Duchy Street. Turn right onto Upper Ground, then turn left onto Barge House Street. You will then see a loading bay to your left with stairs, and an OXO underpass to your right. You can go either way and the stairs for OXO2 will be on your right.

If you have any questions, please reply to this email or contact us at UKevents@liveramp.com. We would be happy to help.
